A still life photograph of various cheeses on a wooden cutting board. In the foreground, a round cheese wheel is partially cut, with a cheese knife with a wooden handle and a metal blade resting on it. To the left, a wedge of Swiss cheese with holes is visible. In the background, another wedge of Swiss cheese and a piece of cheese with a textured orange rind are present. A cheese fork with a wooden handle and a metal blade is also on the board. The entire scene is set on a dark, rustic wooden surface.
